The Manhattan Social is Cumberland’s very own all-day artisanal market, restaurant, and bar. They added a modern, epicurean twist to the City of Cumberland’s history: Just as Cumberland was a prime transportation and society hub in the 19th century, they are a place the community can come together for all kinds of culinary and social experiences - from a quick morning drop-in to an all day or night affair.

"Tri County Council believed in our dreams as much as we did. When no one else came through for us, they were willing to back our project and enabled us to complete it on time. We will always be grateful for the trust they had in us and for enabling this dream to come true not only for us but for the town of Cumberland. This is an organization that believes in its small businesses in the community and has earned our loyalty in return."
