SBA WEBINAR: Keys to Global Market Success

Join SBA's Office of International Trade as we celebrate the impact Small Business Development Centers (SBDCs) have on the export success of U.S. small businesses. For more than 40 years, countless entrepreneurs and small business owners have received assistance to start, grow and expand their businesses with the help of an SBDC. The webinar will include:

- Insights from successful small business exporters who have effectively tapped the services of SBDCs and International Trade Centers to sell overseas
- Strategies for launching or expanding your global sales
- Briefings from SBDC and SBA international trade specialists on resources available to support your global market success, including grant programs to support the costs of expanding your company's international sales
